DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 2-12, 32-33 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Cowdery et al (alone or in view of Szyskowski USPN 5,282,841). Cowdery figure 7a shows 4 terminals (48, 46) having first and second bores communicating therewith, first and second passageways generally shown as 60 (4 such passageways) and third and fourth passageways extending to the terminals with set screw threaded members therein. (fig 7c). The header is made of polymer material and is considered to encase the electrical features. Otherwise, Szyskowski teaches the encapsulation of electronics. The device when assembled forms a unit and is thus "unitary".

Claims 2-12, 32-33 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Wiklund et al USPN 5,919,215 or Szyszkowski in view of Cowdery et al. Both Szyszkowski in view of Cowdery et al teach forming of a header using a molding technique to encapsulate the electronics. While the specific bore structure for the terminals and connection wires are not shown, such an arrangement would have been obvious in view of Cowdery which shows all the necessary bores and passages as explain above.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 11-3-2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Cowdery et al is considered to teach a unitary polymeric header as noted above. The examiner welcomes applicant to telephone the examiner for further discussion as the examiner was not able to suggest language at this time.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
